Goals

- Grow as an organization to be the preeminent responsible voice for our professional community
- Publish a peer reviewed journal to advance the growth and development of animal massage with documentation, research papers and discussion
- Encourage and facilitate communication, understanding and support among all disciplines of animal massage and bodywork

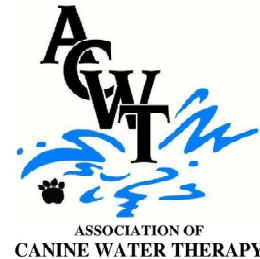

Professional Membership Application

The IAAMB encourages dialog among the schools and schools of thought within the fields of animal massage and bodywork.

Through our educational conferences, publications and internet presence we enhance understanding and professional acceptance of the animal directed disciplines of dry and water massage, acupressure, Reiki, polarity, sound/music, healing touch, flower essence, aromatherapy, color and light therapies, holistic rehabilitation and prehabilitation, and animal communication.

By increasing understanding and communication the International Association of Animal Massage and Bodywork enhances each of our practices of animal wellness and care.

We invite you to join us.
